A Word from the Chair of COM ....

Brrr! Cold weather has returned. Thankfully it didn't deter some 30 brave souls from attending the Robbie Burns Social on January 17/26. It was a great success and enjoyed not only by dancers but by guests who watched and enjoyed the music. Thank you for coming to support your friends or relatives.

My dictionary of Scottish terms says the obvious for a Burns Supper - a celebration of the birthday of Robert Burns, usually a dinner with speeches and songs. It doesn't mention dancing, but that is a priority for RSCDS - Winnipeg Branch. Yes, we had a late "dinner" after the dance program was over. Thanks to Don Johnson for the Haggis and others for the food prepared and enjoyed. Special thanks to Ellen and Clare for their usual fine hospitality and also to those who set up and helped clean up.

During the evening, a highlight was the presentation of the Address to the Haggis, one of Robbie Burns famous poems. The procession was led by our own piper John Hayles, who piped the impressively adorned assistants as well as the main event, Don Johnson carrying the Haggis. Thanks to James Sutherland and May Kong Sutherland for the dramatic and engaging recitation of the poem.

The dancing continued with reels, jigs and Strathspey sets. Thanks to Cheryl Durnin for setting up the dance program.

Another fun activity was the table of Library items and goods for sale. Thanks to Debbie Peters and Joan Curle for their dedicated work.

Several of our dancers have been preparing for various demonstration opportunities. On January 25th they performed at the Brochan Lom (translation bare porridge) concert. (A male choir that sings Scottish tunes as well as other songs).

The committee of management COM, meets monthly to plan and organize the branch activities. If you have an issue you would like aired at these meetings, please speak to me or to Doug Durnin (Vice-Chair), or Sharyl Eaglesham (Secretary).

Our next social will be in March (14th) and our annual workshop in April (18th). Watch for news!!

Have you heard?

Burns Social January 17, 2026

What a grand evening!

There was dancing, poetry, Haggis, and excellent foods. Here are a few photos to show the evening.

In spite of the blustery winter weather, the Branch hosted a festive dance gathering, with 27 people in attendance. We were very pleased to welcome 7 people as guests, two of whom had never seen Scottish dancing before, and they were impressed with what it involves.

Cheryl created a spritely dance program, with lots of our favourites.

James and May organized the Address to the Haggis, and provided suitable attire for the members in the party. A big Thanks to Don Johnson, who pre-orders the two Haggi, picks them up, and cooks the wee Beasties. And brings them, steaming hot to the hall.

The Food Table is always a delight, everyone is so generous, and it all looks so good.

This year, we provided little bags to Take-A-Treat Home. It's hard to taste everything at one go!

Joan and Deb's For Sale Table, and Library are a colourful addition.

Looking forward to the March Social on March 14. Check your calendars!! This social is a Family Fun Ceilidh Evening so invite your Friends and Family!

Our research says that most new members come from a personal invitation.

Thank you! See you on the dance floor!

Ellen Graham

Bring in the Haggis!

Plates are filled...

Brochan Lom concert

On Sunday January 25, ten branch members performed during the Brochan Lom Scottish Men's Chorus concert.

The RSCDS had been invited to dance during the concert. Cheryl Durnin organized the dances, dancers, and practices so a fine presentation could be included as part of the program.

We rehearsed at the Lyncrest Flying club and are very grateful to May and James for procuring the space for us to practice, gratis. My thanks to the dancers who, given the dance notes prior to the first rehearsal, reviewed the notes and came to the first of two rehearsals knowing the dances. In two rehearsals we put together a 15-20 min performance that was very well received by the audience.

I had many compliments after the show and want to add that I am very proud of the dancers who gave of their time and danced so well.

Cheryl

From the Classes ...

Monday Class

From time to time there does arise a dilemma when (usually) a woman dances on the “man’s” side of the dance. Here is a poem about such occasions.

Thanks to Hilary Hayles for suggesting this. ed.

THE LADIES MAN

*"I'm a two-sex Scottish Dancer
And may seem rather dim
But I never spend one evening
As a full time her or him*

*I change my sex from dance to dance,
My corners always alter
It's really not surprising I
Occasionally falter.*

*The old and simple dances
I can manage very nicely,
And I can learn a new dance
And do it most precisely*

*But when it comes to next week
I don't know if I can,
For I learnt it as a woman
And dance it as a man.*

*And so, you men who have the luck
To stay always the same,
When female gentlemen go wrong
Be sparing with your blame.*

*I'll add a postscript to this tale
One comfort I have got
When both the women change their sex
It doesn't show a lot."*

~ Pat Batt (RSCDS London)

However there does occasionally arise the situation where a man is relegated to dance on the "lady's" side. Sometimes by numbers, or by the ladies grabbing all the ladies as partners leaving a couple of men to partner up. I bow humbly to the talented ladies who are able to dance from either side. -ed

Our Little Winnipeg Branch in the Dancing World:

Recently I started a YouTube channel just for showcasing videos of Scottish Country Dancing and Scottish shows done in our local Winnipeg area. As May had videoed the St. Andrew's Day Show that our RSCDS branch had done for the St. Andrew's Society of Winnipeg, I decided to put these up on YouTube. I always cross-reference these with hashtags to Scottish Country Dance, dance, dance Scottish and the RSCDS.

Little did I know that these are monitored for their content by both the Strathspey Server Database and the RSCDS Scottish Dance Dictionary webmasters. To my surprise most of these dances have been uploaded as examples of the specific dance by both sites. Some are the only video versions of that dance. I later uploaded videos from the Winkler show (April 2023) and many of these were also picked up by both sites. Several have been given demonstration quality labeling. Therefore, even in our small branch we can still have an impact on the larger Scottish Country Dance community. Thanks to all the dancers, teachers, Cheryl for organizing these shows and May for videotaping them.

Please note that there are other dances from our Branch that are also on these sites that can also be viewed. These are from performances a few years ago.

The following are links to the various dances.

The Library will be available at the March Social on March 14.

Nearly New Shop

Add a touch of tartan to our April workshop social. Tartan sashes will be available for $15.00 at our March social. A sash looks wonderful worn over the shoulder, with or without a rosette. Celebrate Scottish country dance in style.

A donated kilt will be the featured kilt for our contest. The photo shows the kilt for you to work out the name the tartan—send in your guess now or drop your answer in the contest jar at the Spring Social in March. (There are sites on the internet which help you identify kilt names by colour.)

The kilt has a 31 inch waist and if you try it on and like what you see, it will be available for purchase for $15 at the social.

from the editor's desk ...

The New Year is upon us. We had mild temps for some time but as I write this note the mercury is dropping! The cold temp for our Burns Social on Saturday had me pull on my wind pants under my kilt to travel home!

The snow day cancellation policy is still included and certainly appropriate. We continue to receive snow and with winds to blow it around the visibility is sometimes very poor.

The Burns Social was a great evening with dancing, parading of and address to the Haggis, and yummy foods.

The March Social is a Family Fun Ceilidh Night! This social will feature ceilidh dancing and as such there is no programme of dances to publish. In fact, the dances may change depending on how Sheila reads the group. Invite your friends, neighbours, and family!

You can now register for our Spring Workshop with guest teacher Alan Twigg. The workshop is coming up on April 18.

"A picture is worth a thousand words?" This issue of The Light & Airy newsletter is a bit longer than most as I have included some photos of activities which tend to better show the fun.
